🗨 PROFILE

Experienced professional with 8+ years in sales, management, and product development in the fashion industry, making a lateral transition to front-end development. Creative problem solver that has worked in startups, and established firms using diverse CRM and PLM tools.

As a recent graduate from Le Wagon Web Development Bootcamp I am seeking a front-end development role where learning and growth are supported. I would like to contribute with my years of professional knowledge while I strengthen my coding skills getting exposure on multiple projects, in a collaborative environment.
